

HOPE is a medical student founded and medical student run remote tutoring program created in response to the shift to remote learning due to COVID-19. Our goal is to provide peer tutoring and support during this time by connecting medical students to public school students in need of tutoring services.

Course Offerings

| Science | Math | History | English | Foreign Language | Arts |
|----------------------|------------------|---------------------|----------------------------|------------------|-------|
| Grade Level Science | Grade Level Math | Grade Level History | Grade Level English | French | Piano |
| Biology | Geometry | AP European History | AP Literature | Spanish | |
| Chemistry | Algebra I | AP US History | AP Writing and Composition | Creole | |
| Anatomy & Physiology | Algebra II | AP Human Geography | | Italian | |
| Physics | Pre-Calculus | AP World History | | Mandarin | |
| AP Chemistry | Calculus AB | AP Government | | Japanese | |
| AP Biology | Calculus BC | | | | |
| AP Physics | Statistics | | | | |
| | Trigonometry | | | | |

All student tutors are volunteers and medical students at Florida International University Herbert Wertheim College of Medicine. All volunteers have had a Level II Federal Background Check and have at least a Bachelor's Degree from an accredited university. HOPE is a collaboration with Miami-Dade County Public Schools

